

Divine Advice: Teachings of the Extra Celestials

By Nancy Burson

"IT'S THE BIGGEST COVERUP IN HUMAN HISTORY! What Does The Face Of God Look Like?"

"Throughout history there have been men and women, infamous and not, who have seen that God's face isn't the Divine face they had thought. One of the first of these was Joan of Arc, who was burned at the stake for what she knew was true. Moses also knew from the start that there was a part at the heart of the burning bush that was blue, and within that blueness was a face or two. You see the bush wasn't really burning; it was lit up with us, the Extra Celestials! We have played much more a part of history than humanity knows and now we are ready to come here and tell you so."

For the majority of her life, former part time Harvard professor, FBI consultant, photographer, healer and author Nancy Burson scoffed at anyone involved with aliens or UFOs. That changed in August of 2004 when Burson visited a crop circle in Wiltshire, England and had a personal close encounter. She met a consortium of highly sentient light beings she refers to as the Extra Celestials (ECs), and she has since become their Ambassador and official interpreter. As such, she has spent the past five years introducing them to thousands of believers and non-believers across the U.S. and England.

Divine Advice is Burson's out-of-this-world compilation of antidotes, photos, and other communications she has received from them through the course of her journey. It chronicles the growth of their relationship in their poetic verse, from the time they first appear to her as dancing balls of amorphous blue light.

Accompanied by a unique teaching tool --- a miraculous glow-in-the-dark "Dancing Mother Mary" statuette, Burson has accumulated visual proof of the ECs through photographs taken by audiences at her presentations. These presentations are life changing in that they provide the viewer with visual proof of the phenomena...and there is no denying that these audiences have had an eye-opening encounter with the Divine.

Nancy Burson's channel to the ECs is both controversial and extraordinary, as she has accumulated more evidence of the ECs existence than any other human. And she has been given a body of evidence in more than one way, as she is the recipient of a strand of their DNA. After several years of manifesting materials from her body that have been proven disease free, there are still tiny crystals emerging from her hands and feet. And in the past 6 months, she has been marked by the ECs through microphones placed within her, as well as marks that have appeared externally on her body. The design at her throat she has been given to represent she is officially their voice box is one that is, without a doubt, otherworldly.

She has also received manifestations directly from the ECs in the form of Waters she has distributed to those in need of cures that the medical profession is not yet capable of providing. The ECs have also entrusted her with invaluable information regarding human health as well as substantial scientific proof they are here. Although she is humbled at receiving all of the gifts she's been given, the advice in this book prevails, and the sayings that come through are not only given to direct her life, but all human lives as well.

This collection of advice brought from the Higher God realms serves each human differently, depending on what they are seeking. It is both a stunning new tool for one's healing tool box and a perfect bedtime story! All the reader has to do is open it and you are where the Universe has decided you should be! It's perfect for use as a quick reference whenever there is a need for the Highest God-guidance. And the ECs advice is clearly divine in that it even rhymes quite a lot of the time!

Since the ECs are with us now to truly change the course of human destiny, both the first and last chapters address more about who they really are and how they fit into the structure that constitutes the higher God realms.

Divine Advice is now available on Amazon.com and is also available as a PDF purchasable through the website of the author, Nancy Burson.

<http://www.nancyburson.com/pages/book.html>

For media contacts and further information, please contact info@nancyburson.com

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Nancy Burson's work is shown in museums and galleries internationally including major exhibitions at The International Center of Photography and the New Museum in New York City, The Venice Biennale, The Contemporary Arts Museum in Houston, and The Museum of Contemporary Photography in Chicago. "Seeing and Believing", her traveling 2002 retrospective originating at the Grey Art Gallery, was nominated for Best Solo Museum Show of the Year in New York City by the International Association of Art Critics. She has served as a visiting professor at Harvard and was a member of the adjunct photography faculty at New York University's Tisch School of the Arts.

Burson is best known for her pioneering work in morphing technology, which age enhances the human face, enabling law enforcement officials to locate missing children and adults. Her Human Race Machine, which allows people to view themselves as a different race, was featured on Oprah in 2006. Currently there are Human Race Machines touring the U.S. College and university market, as a diversity tool that provides students with the profound visual experience of being another race.

She has collaborated with Creative Time, the Lower Manhattan Cultural Council, and Deutsche Bank in completing several important public art projects in New York City. These projects include the billboard "There's No Gene For Race" and the poster/postcard project "Focus on Peace." The LMCC's "Focus on Peace" project distributed 30,000 postcards and 7,000 posters around the site of the World Trade Center to coincide with the first anniversary of 9/11. Burson's first text-based book, Focus: How Your Energy Can Change the World, was published in 2004, and she has authored four books of her photography. As a photographer, writer, inventor, healer, and minister, Burson lectures and teaches worldwide, providing first hand experience with the unseen.

Currently Burson is traveling; conducting presentations to familiarize her audience with the material and phenomena included in her new book Divine Advice. In the past few years, she has created public presentations at many diverse venues including The United Nations, The Glastonbury Symposium, The Prophets Conference, Bodhi Tree Books, The Silent Circle (England), East West Books (NYC), and Breathe Books (Baltimore).